FineART Center  wearable ART thirteen fashion show / August 26th 2017

Twelve years ago, DFAC's extraordinary Wearable ART Fashion Show made its debut before its first SOLD-OUT crowd. Now in its 13th year, this mind-blowing event promises to continue to be the standard against which all Tampa Bay art/fashion shows are measured.

Focusing on unconventional designs and materials, prior WA designers have presented a "theatre of the unimaginable" to perpetually sold out audiences. With designs incorporating: raw meat (pre-Lady Gaga), kinetic illusion, balloons as high art and outrageous pyrotechnics--past Wearable Art designers have gone on to international acclaim by receiving awards in New Zealand's renowned World of Wearable Art runway show.
